DOCUMENTARY CREDIT ROLE IN FOREIGN TRADE ACCORDING TO UCP 600 AND INCOTERMS

Date & Venue:

09 May in Karachi at Movenpick Hotel Karachi

11 May in Lahore at Royal Palm Lahore

Timings: 9:00 am to 5:30 pm

Workshop Investment:

35,000/- (Exclusive of GST)

Course Facilitator:

Ayman Shokry is an innovative, customer-focused, continuous improvement, Supply Chain Professional. He has been a part of the logistics and supply chain management industry for the past 24 years, including 19 years in a managerial role in all facets of SCM including logistics, inventory control, warehouse management, procurement, contracts, distribution, fleet management, planning/scheduling and project management.

Course Overview:

If you are involved or responsible in international trade - dealing with documentary credits is no easy. The documentary credits are complicated and not knowing some of the crucial terms can turn your import or export deals into loss making. So much so, you want to be more careful, but do you know what to look out for? This intensive one day program can answer many questions that you pondered on, that would leave no unturned stones.

Course Objectives:

This program is designed to develop the skills and knowledge of importers in understanding the know-how, available documents, documentary credits and risk in trade documentations. Trade documentations can be the biggest hurdle especially when you are negotiating with overseas suppliers. Negotiations and uncertainties coupled with rejections from your bank, can delay your arrival date for your cargo.
